

Why Didn't I Know This Before?

Course Description:

Since 2020, our lives and practices have changed forever, but certain tenants remain constant; fiscal sanity protects our family from adversity, elder care is a discussion we must have before it's necessary, centralizing important information lessens the burden on survivors, and understanding the importance of team building and knowing one's numbers help a practice thrive, even in a crisis. Join Dr. Kerr as he shares numerous tips and life skills in this informative and entertaining program which will positively impact your life.

Learning Objectives:

1. After this course you will be able to make better financial decisions for your family, practice, and future.
2. After this course you will be able to take steps to better protect your family and your practice from life's uncertainties.