Dr. Wayne Kerr, CDSF Distinguished Speaker, to offer lessons from life and dentistry

AM EXCITED TO ANNOUNCE this year's CDS Foundation Distinguished Speaker: Dr. Wayne Kerr, whose practical advice and self-deprecating humor charm audiences across the country. Join us for his talks on Feb. 20 at the Midwinter Meeting and get swept away in engaging tales of his experience as a dentist, entrepreneur, spouse, dad and caregiver.

His morning talk, "Wear it on a Tuesday" (#LD 144), will emphasize core values and life skills conveyed through artful storytelling. In the afternoon he will discuss, "Good Stuff to Know: Navigating Uncertainties for Practice Success" (#LD 17), covering everything from key practice indicators through financial planning to team building.

"I won't waste your time, and you'll leave each course with valuable tips to enhance your life, both personally and professionally," says Dr. Kerr.

Dr. Kerr holds fellowships from the American and International Colleges of Dentistry and is an Honored Fellow of the Georgia Dental Association. He is a Master in the Academy of General Dentistry and received the AGD's Life-Long Learning and Service Recognition Award in 2011. With over 35 years in a small-town practice, he founded a clinic for the indigent in 1994. Dr. Kerr has been recognized as dentist, citizen, professional and small-businessperson of the year by various organizations. He has authored seven books, including "When Life Needs A Sticky Note" and "Wear It On a Tuesday."

Whether this is your first or fifth time attending Dr. Kerr's lectures, you will learn something new, as he constantly updates and upgrades his programs to make them more practical and relevant. Come prepared to be entertained, then walk away with action items for success and fulfillment.

See you there! ■
